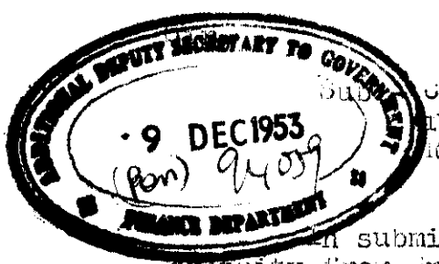
Rc.No.117/-05/53 dated 26-11-1953



Sub:- Compassionate Gratuity--late Sri M. Ramachandra formerly Junior Deputy Inspector of Schools, Kasaragod Range--Application from the Widow.

In submitting herewith an application for compassionate gratuity from Srimathi Padmavathi, Widow of Sri M. Ramachandra late Junior Deputy Inspector of Schools, Kasaragod Range, I have the honour to state as follows:-

Sri M. Ramachandra died on 11-4-1953, after a short illness. He is survived by his Widow, 4 sons and 3 daughters. The financial position of the family as revealed by the Report of the Revenue Authorities is as follows:-

The deceased did not own any immovable properties. At the time of his death, he had a debt of about Rs.1950/- of which a sum of Rs.1250/- is said to have been borrowed by him to complete his B.T. course. He died even before the B.T. Examination results were published. He was subscribing to an Insurance policy for Rs.500/- and it is said to have been lapsed in 1952, owing to non-payment of premia.

The applicant is living in a rented house. She does not have any relatives who are in a position to help her. She is the second wife of the deceased. By the first wife, he had 2 daughters and 1 son. All the 7 children are under the protection and care of the applicant. Two daughters are of marriageable age; and the responsibility of performing their marriages and educating the other children has fallen on the applicant. The amount of General Provident Fund left by the deceased is reported to be Rs.291/- only

It is thus seen that the financial position of the applicant is very poor; and she appears to deserve the maximum help from Government. The Revenue Authorities have recommended the grant of the maximum amount of gratuity admissible under the rules.

The work and conduct of the Junior Deputy Inspector, while in service were satisfactory. The pay last drawn by him was Rs.73 plus 24 (Dearness allowance). His total service under Government excluding periods of break is over 15 years.

In view of the large number of dependants of the deceased (3 including the applicant), in view of the indigent circumstances in which they are now placed, and in view of the recommendations of the Revenue Authorities to sanction the maximum compassionate gratuity allowed under the rules, I recommend that a compassionate gratuity of Rs.1150/- (Rupees One thousand one hundred and fifty only) may be sanctioned to the applicant.

The Service Book, Personal File and Last Pay Certificate of the late Junior Deputy Inspector are also herewith submitted.

Yours faithfully,

For Director of Public Instruction

Asst.3.12.

Application for the grant of compassionate [illegible] to the family of Sri M. Ramachandra, Junior Deputy Inspector of schools, Kasargod [illegible] ubmitted to the Divisional Inspector of schools, Coimbatore with all enclosures*.

R.C. No. 6056 A/53 Dated the 10th September, 1953.

3. Late Sri M.Ramachandra held a permanent appointment as Secondary grade teacher in the Model school attached to the Government Secondary Training School, Mangalore and was officiating as Junior Deputy Inspector of schools, Kasargod. He was an approved probationer in the latter post. He joined as an offg. Secondary grade teacher in the Government Model school on 2-7-1935 and was confirmed as a Secondary grade teacher from 7-5-1940. Subsequent to his appointment as Secondary grade teacher, he passed Intermediate and B.A. degree Examinations as a private candidate. After obtaining the B.A. degree, he underwent B.T. training during 1952-53. He expired on 11-4-1953 before the results of the B.T. degree Examination was published. He had a great sense of duty and his work and conduct were reported to be satisfactory throughout the period of his service both as a secondary grade teacher and as Junior Deputy Inspector of schools. He fell ill of fever while in camp. He returned to Headquarters and got himself admitted to the Government Hospital at Kasargod on 11-4-1953. There he died as an inpatient on the same day.

3. Report received from the Revenue authorities show that the Assets of the petitioner(widow of late Mr. Ramachandra, Junior Deputy Inspector) are practically nil and in view of the poverty and helplessness created by the premature death of the Bread-winner of the family consisting of the widow and seven children, she deserves the grant of the maximum compassionate gratuity.

4. Late Sri M. Ramachandra, at the time of his death was drawing a monthly salary of Rs.73/- with a dearness allowance of Rs.24/-. As such a sum of Rs.1164/- (one thousand one hundred and sixty four only) is recommended to be paid as compassionate gratuity to Srimathi M. Padmavathi, widow of late M.Ramachandra.

2. I have examined the applicant, who is the widow of late Sri D. Ramachandra Gowda, Junior Dy. Inspector of Schools, Kanakapura who died in harness at Kanakapura on 11-1-63 due to heart failure. A genealogical tree of the family of the deceased may be perused. The deceased has left behind him his widow the applicant, two daughters of marriageable age and 4 minor sons and one recently born female baby. Enquiry shows that the applicant is the second wife of the deceased and not by his first wife. The said two daughters (above mentioned) are also her own. All her 7 children are under her protection & care of the applicant.

3 Enquiry has shown that the applicant did not own any immovable property: and that the value of her clothes, etc. is about Rs. 1950/- while the value of which Rs. 1250/- is said to have been obtained by him on loan to complete his B.E. Course. The deceased was, however, having a Insurance Policy for Rs. 500/- on the Oriental Life Assurance Co. and his mother is said to have taken over the management of finances. It is revealed that the deceased was financially very poor and his sudden death has upset the domestic arrangements the maintenance above. Two girls are of marriageable age and the responsibility of marrying them has already fallen on the applicant. I understand that the eldest daughter N. Saraswathi Bai is temporarily entertained as Teacher in Nedrim Mgs. School Kaup and no vacancy is said to be existent at present. It can be said that the family of the deceased is in a very miserable condition and needs some substantial help of Government, the family will certainly be placed in a still more miserable condition. No. 3 Leela Bai is attending the Training School. Nos. 4 & 6 are also attending Schools.

4. The applicant is living in a rented house with 7 children mentioned above. Saying above that she is not having any near relatives who are in a position to help her. I feel the maximum that here is a Real Case to grant Compassionate gratuity to the applicant allowed under the rules. M

English rendering of the Statement of dated 23-8-1953 of Smt. M. Padmavathi widow of Sri M. Ramachandra, residing in Udipi.

I state that the application referred to in N.Ref.No.6920-53-1 is mine. My husband Sri M. Ramachandra, was a Junior Deputy Inspector of schools, and he died on 11-4-1953. He had 21 years of service. He has 2 daughters and one son by his first wife. After the death of his first wife, Smt. Sita Bai, he married me and I have 3 sons and one daughter. Altogether there are 8 members in our family who were depending on him and who have no means to fall back upon now.

2. Neither my deceased husband nor I have owned any immovable properties, we are living in a rented house at Udipi. My husband had Insured his life for Rs.500/- in Oriental Life Assurance Company But this policy had lapsed on account of non-payment of premium. So far as my knowledge goes, he is indebted to an extent of Rs.1250/- and this amount was taken on loan to compete his B.T. course. In addition to this; there are some more debts to the extent of Rs.700/- the details of which are not known to me.

3. My husband suffered from double pneumonia and he died of heart-failure. 2 daughers are of marriageable age, and the responsibility of marrying them has fallen on me. 4 children are attending schools, and I have to educate them. In the circumstances, stated above, I request that at least a compassionate gratuity of Rs.4000/- may kindly be sanctioned to me at an early date.

I have no relatives who can help me.
